THE present Catalogue has been drawn up in accordance with the rules observed in the compilation of the General Catalogue of Printed Books in the British Museum.

It is alphabetical, according to authors' names, the Museum system being followed for anonymous and pseudonymous works; for books published under initials; for Bibles, Liturgies and other works of a special character.

It is accompanied by a very full Index of Subjects with certain special class headings, such as Ballads, Plays, Poems, Songs, etc., in which the titles of the works, with their dates, are set forth in alphabetical order. Each article so mentioned has also its own separate entry in the Index.

Subjoined to this is an ample Index of the Printers, Booksellers and Stationers whose productions are here catalogued. After each name the dates are given within which, so far as ascertainable, such Printer, Bookseller or Stationer produced or sold his books. The headings under which such works appear in the Catalogue are given in italics.

The Keeper of the Department has much pleasure in acknowledging the able assistance he has received from Mr. GREGORY W. ECCLES in preparing the Catalogue for the Press, and in revising the proof-sheets.

Keeper of the Department of Printed Books.

A fragment (consisting of two duplicate leaves;) of the tale of Owen Glendour, in the above work.] [In aedibus Johannis Waylandi, Londini, 1555?] fol.

643. m. 9. (25.)

The prose is printed in single, and the verse in double columns, with 42 or 43 lines to the full column. The running title is "A briefe memorial of Unfortunate Englysh princes." This edition was suppressed by order of the Lord Chancellor: but the work was republished in 4to in 1559 under the title "A Myrroure for Magistrates," and probably enlarged.

— A Myrroure for Magistrates. Wherein may be seen by example of other, with howe grevous plages vices are punished: and howe frayle and unstable worldly prosperitie is founde, even of those, whom Fortune seemeth most highly to favour. This Bible was for a long time supposed to have been printed at Zurich, but in 1877 Mr. H. Stevens, in the Catalogue of the Caxton Exhibition, gave strong reasons for believing it to have been printed by J. van Meteren, at Antwerp. On the verso of the titlepage is a table of "The boke of the whole Byble," etc., but containing only those of the Old Testament. Then follows Coverdale's Epistle "Unto the most victorions Prynce...kyng Henry the eyght," etc., occupying five pages; then "A prologe. eth," one page. The Old Testament is in five parts, each separately folioed; the second part, the Prophets, and the Apoerypha have each a distinct titlepage. The New Testament has a distinct titlepage, and is separately folioed. The seven leaves of preliminary matter between the title and the beginning of Genesis are printed in a character different from that of the rest of the volume. The titlepage of this copy, having been mutilated, has been restored in fac-simile. There is a fac-simile of the titlepage of this edition, and another of that with the date 1536; also a copy of the engraved part of the original titlepage of the latter, the centre, containing the title, having been cut out. At the end are three leaves from the Prophets and one from the New Testament, having slight variations from those in the body of the book; also specimens of the initial and capital letters used in the work, cut from another copy and pasted on a separate leaf.

— Another copy. G. 12208.

Imperfect; wanting the titlepage and two following leaves, the third leaf of the Prologue, and the map, all which have been supplied in fac-simile.

This is the first edition of "Cranmer's" or the "Great Bible." The title is enclosed within a large woodcut, representing King Henry VIII. enthroned, also Archbishop Cranmer, Cromwell Earl of Essex, etc. Underneath the figures of Cranmer and Cromwell are the arms of each within circles. On the verso of the titlepage are "The names of all the bookes of the Byble." This is followed by the Kaleuder on two leaves sig. * ij. and * iii. "An exhortacyon to the studye of the holy Scripture," sig. * iiij. On the verso of the same fol., "The summe and content of all the holy Scripture." Sig. *5, verso, A prologue, etc. Sig. *6, "A descripcyon and successe of the kynges of Judah and Jerusalem." Each pt. has a separate titlepage. This copy is imperfect; wanting the general titlepage, which, however, has been supplied in facsimile. A further description of this book will be found in the Grenville Catalogue.

— Another copy, with variations. C. 18. d. 1.

BIBLE. The Byble in Englyshe, etc. B. A. R. Grafton ⁊ E. Whitchurch, [London,] 1539. fol. 469. g. 4.

This is a made-up copy, consisting chiefly of the edition of April, 1540, with a fac-simile titlepage, the last leaf and some other portions from the 1539 edition. At the end are inserted some additional leaves from the edition of 1539, etc., also a collection of the initial letters used in the work, pasted on 10 pages. An engraved portrait of Cranmer after Holbein is inserted at the commencement.

— The Byble in Englyshe, that is to saye the contēt of al the holy scrypture, both of y^e

Preliminary matter nine leaves; the Old Testament is in four parts, each separately folioed, and the three latter with distinct titlepages; the New Testament has a distinct titlepage and numeration. The last four leaves of the preliminary matter have been inserted from the July edition of the same year.

— Another copy. ON VELLUM.
C. 23. d. 9.

A presentation copy to Henry VIII., from "Anthonye Marler of London haberdassher." The title-pages, engravings, and initials are illuminated throughout; the frontispiece to the New Testament differs from that of the copy on paper, being an illuminated painting in eight compartments, with the title in the centre, and made, apparently, expressly for this copy.

BIBLE. The Byble in Englyshe, that is to saye the content of all the holye scripture ...truly translated after the veryte of the Hebrue and Greke textes, etc. B. L. T. Petyt and R. Redman for T. Berthelet, Apryll, 1540. fol. 1276. i. 1.

On the verso of the titlepage is "An almanacke for xxx yeres;" then follow "The Kalender" and "A prologue," etc., occupying three leaves, the last page of which is blank. The Old Testament is in two parts, separately folioed, and the New Testament has a distinct titlepage and numeration. The titlepage and the last leaf but one of this copy are slightly mutilated.

— The Byble in Englyshe, that is to saye the contēt of al the holy scripture, both of y^e olde, and newe testamēt, with a prologe therinto, made by... Thomas archbyssshop of Cantorbury. B. L. 5 pts. R. Grafton, [London,] July, 1540. fol.

C. 18. d. 4.

The titlepage is followed by a "Kalender" and "Almanacke" on two leaves; the "Prologue," by Cranmer (the running title of which has been cut off by the binder), on three leaves; and "The names of all the booke of the Byble" on one leaf, of which the verso is blank. After the Table of Epistles and Gospels is the colophon, with the words, "A domino factum est istud. This is the Lordes doynge." Printed in double columns, each pt. with a distinct titlepage and pagination. The Apocryphal Books are entitled "Hagiographa."

The titlepage is followed by a "Kalendar" and "Almanacke" on two leaves; "An exhortacyon to the studye of the holye Scripture," "The summe and content of all the holy Scripture," and "A Prologue, expressyng what is meant by certayne sygues," etc., on two leaves; "A description and successe of the kynges of Juda and Jernsalem" on one leaf; "A prologue," by Cranmer, on three leaves; and "The names of all the booke of the Byble" on one leaf, of which the verso is blank. After the table of Epistles and Gospels is the colophon, with the words, "A domino factum est istud. This is the Lordes doynge." Printed in double columns, each pt. with a distinct titlepage and pagination. The Apocryphal Books are entitled "Hagiographa." The Kalender appears to be supplied from the edition of November, 1541, and fol. 97, pt. 5, from Grafton's edition of April, 1540. The arms of Cromwell, who had been beheaded for high treason on the 28th July, 1540, were erased from the titlepages of this and subsequent editions.

Whitchurch, London, 1541.*] fol. C. 18. d. 9.

This is another copy of the edition completed in November, 1540, having 46 leaves in the New Testament which differ from those generally found in this edition, or in the other folio editions; viz. sigs. Ec2-7, Ffi-8, Gg1-8, Hh1-8, Ii1-8, Ll1-6, Mm2-3. Mr. F. Fry of Bristol, in a MS. note prefixed to this copy, states that on comparing a large number of copies, he found only two containing this impression of these leaves; viz. this copy, and one in his own possession. This copy is imperfect, wanting foll. 64 and 65 of pt. 4, or sigs. Hh18 and Ii11; and having the titlepage and five following leaves, containing the "Kalender" and "Prologue," as well as the last two leaves, executed in fac-simile.

— [English.—The New Testament with marginal glosses, translated by W. Tyndale, assisted by W. Roy.] G. 1. [P. Quentell, Cologne, 1525.] 4to. G. 12179.

Without titlepage. A fragment, sig. A-H, consisting of 31 leaves, containing "The Prologue" and part of the Gospel of St. Matthew. This is the first edition of the New Testament in English. Only sheets A to K were printed. A further account of the edition will be found in the Grenville Catalogue.

— The newe Testament, dylygently corrected and compared with the Greke by W. Tindale, etc. B. 1. Marten Emperour, Anwerp, 1534. 8vo. C. 23. a. 5.

On stained paper of a straw colour. The introductory matter by W. Tyndale occupies thirty pages, commencing on the verso of the titlepage; in several places the running head-title has been misprinted "The Table," instead of

"W. T. to the Reader." After the preliminary matter there is a second title as follows: "The newe Testament, Imprinted at Anwerp by Marten Emperewr Anne M.D.xxxiiij."

— Another copy. C. 23. a. 23.

On stained paper of a straw colour. Imperfect; wanting the first titlepage and eight leaves of the preliminary matter. The misprint in the running head-title, referred to in the copy above, has been corrected in this.

— Another copy. ON VELLUM. C. 23. a. 8.

Imperfect; wanting the first titlepage and all the preliminary matter. This copy formerly belonged to Queen Anne Boleyn, and has her arms emblazoned in the lower compartment of the second titlepage, which is illuminated. It has also the words "Anna Regina Angliæ" painted in red on the gilt edges of the leaves.

BIBLE. — NEW TESTAMENT.

Without pagination. Sig. Ɔ, a-z, A-H, Aa-XX, Aaa-Cee. The titlepage is followed by the Calendar on six leaves, and the colophon by a Table on 13 leaves. The Epistles of St. Paul have a separate titlepage, and the register recommences with Aa. This is the edition of Tyndale's Version which George Joy altered, and the copy is believed to be unique. A further description of it is given in the Grenville Catalogue.

— [The newe Testament dylygently corrected and compared with the Greke by Willyam Tindale: and fynesshed in the yere of oure Lorde God A. M.D. and . xxxv.] B. L. [Hans van Ruremonde, Antwerp? 1535.] 8vo.

C. 36. a. 2.

A complete copy would have the following signatures: (.), X(:)G, H*, A-Z, a-q or further, since all known copies are imperfect at the end. Sheets in eights, except X(:)G, which has four leaves. Leaves numbered; 38 lines to a full page. There are marginal references and contents prefixed to each chapter, but no notes. This edition is distinguished by peculiarities of orthography (such as faether, broether, maey), which are perhaps best accounted for as Dutch or Flemish spelling adopted by a foreign compositor. This copy has the leaves cropped, and is imperfect; wanting titlepage with sigs. (.), X(:)G, H*, A1-4, D1, E3, H3, O1, R2 and 7, d6, h3, i8, l1, 2, with l6 and all beyond; and h1 and 7 are mutilated.

- Another copy. MS. NOTES.

A duplicate of the preceding, except the sheet B, which is reprinted with variations. Imperfect; wanting the titlepage, sigs. (.), X(:)G, H*, A, B1, c and all beyond.

BIBLE. — NEW TESTAMENT. [The Newe Testament, yet once agayne corrected by W. Tindale: Where unto is added a Kalendar, etc.] B. L. [Antwerp?] 1535. 8vo.

C. 36. b. 5.

A second titlepage immediately preceding the text of the New Testament bears the date 1534. Both titlepages are surrounded by woodcut borders. Imperfect; wanting the first titlepage, the Kalendar, "The Office of all Estates," and all before vii. of the Table of the four Evangelists, sig. E3, F1, sheet Q (being foll. 121-129), U1, sheet a, q i.-r iii., and all after r v. The first titlepage, one leaf of "The office of all Estates," and sig. s viii. to the end are supplied in fac-simile.

— The newe Testament yet once agayne corrected by Willyam Tindale: where unto is added a necessarye Table: wherein easely and lightely may be founde any sterye centaynd in the foure Evangelistes, and in the Actes of the Apostles. B. L. [Antwerp?] 1536. 4to. C. 24. a. 23.

There were three quarto editions of Tyndale's New Testament printed in 1536. This is a copy of the first edition, as described by Lea Wilson,—the stone in the engravings of the Apostle Paul being left blank; but the words, "This cup is the New Testament," etc. (1 Cor. ch. xi.), said to occur in Lea Wilson's copy, are here omitted.

BIBLE. — NEW TESTAMENT. English. The Newe Testament yet once agayne corrected by willyam Tindale: where unto is added a necessarye Table, etc. B. L. [Antwerp?] 1536. 4to. C. 24. b.

This edition is distinguished by the engraver's mark of a mole in the representations of St. Paul.

— Another copy. C. 10. a. 9.

Imperfect; wanting the titlepage and the leaves containing the preliminary matter.

— The Newe testament yet ones agayne corrected by W. Tyndale: And in many places amended/where it seaped before by neglygence of the printer. Also a Kalendar And a necessary table/wherin easely & lyghtly may be founde any story eöteyned in the feure Euangelystes/and in the Actes of the apostels. Also before every pystel of S. Paul is a prelogue very frutefull to the reder. And after the newe testament foloweth the Epystels of the olde testament, &c. B. L. Newly printed [by T. Berthelet, London,] in the yere of our lorde 1536. fol. C. 36. f. 3.

The titlepage and preliminary matter occupy 14 unnumbered leaves, sigs. A1-6, Aa1-4, and Aaa1-4. These are followed by 205 numbered leaves and two unnumbered, containing "the Table," etc. The New Testament ends on fol. cxcvii. recto. The volume concludes with the words: "The ende of this boke. God save the kynge/and all his well wyllers." This copy is imperfect; wanting the titlepage, sigs. A ii.-v., and Aaa iv. of the preliminary matter, which, however, are supplied in fac-simile. Foll. 16, 102, and 105 are mutilated.

This Concordance or Harmony of the Four Evangelists was compiled expressly for Charles I. by Nicholas Ferrar and his family at their religious establishment, called the Protestant Convent, at Little Gidding in Huntingdonshire, in 1635. It is composed of portions of Bibles of various types cut out and pasted in parallel columns on blank leaves of paper, and is profusely illustrated with inserted engravings and cuttings from engravings, chiefly by German and Dutch artists. The above title is in MS., preceded by a MS. Index and Explanation on two leaves. The finely ornamented binding was the work of Mary Collet, niece of N. Ferrar, one of the inmates of his establishment.

BRITISH CHURCH. De antiquitate Britannicæ Ecclesiæ & Privilegiis Ecclesiæ Cantuariensis, cum Archiepiscopis ejusdem 70. (Catalogus Cancellariorū, Procancellariorum, Procuratorum, ac eorum qui in Achademia Cantebigriensi ad gradum Doctoratus aspiraverunt. Et numerus omnium graduatorum, &c. ab An. Dom. 1500...ad annum. 1571. etc.) [By Archbishop Parker, assisted by his secretaries G. Ackworth and J. Josseline.] [J. Day, Lambeth,] 1572. fol. C. 24. b. 7.

The first book privately printed in England, of which probably not more than 25 copies were struck off. The "Catalogus Cancellariorum, etc.," has a separate titlepage and pagination. Each of the titlepages has a woodcut border. The arms of the archbishops, bishopries, and colleges have been emblazoned in gold and colours. In this copy pages 41 and 42 are erroneously substituted for 47 and 48; the woodcut of the public schools at Cambridge, which should follow the title "Catalogus Cancellariorum," the two leaves containing the list of books given by the Archbishop, and the leaf containing the errata are wanting. This was a presentation copy from the Archbishop to Lord Arundel, whose autograph, with that of Lord Lumley, appears on the titlepage.

— Another copy. C. 24. b.

A presentation copy to Queen Elizabeth, bound in embroidered velvet. In this copy the two titlepages and the leaf containing the arms of the bishopries are on vellum, the woodcut borders of which are illuminated, and the arms throughout the volume are emblazoned in gold and colours. It contains the leaf bearing the woodcut of the public schools at Cambridge, and also the two leaves containing the list of books given by the Archbishop, and the leaf of errata.

B. L. ON VELLUM. [London?
1490?] s. sh. fol. C. 18. a.

Printed with black ink from blocks, on a long and narrow slip of vellum, various names and figures being inserted by hand in red. One side contains tables exhibiting the golden number and Sunday letter and a calendar of Saints, and the other coloured illustrations of the several months. A.D. 1537, the date supplied in MS., does not agree with the date according to other eras also given, and can, if correct, only indicate the year in which this copy was used, not that in which it was printed, which must have been much earlier. Incisions are made in the sheet to enable it to fold into small compass. It is contained in a leathern case convenient for the pocket.
